The Foundation has been organized in accordance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

The purpose of the Foundation is to promote charitable, educational and other undertakings in support of the mission of the United States Air Force (USAF) Academy and includes the following:

SECTION 1. Vision: To further the development of tomorrow's Air Force and Space Force leaders of character through scholarship support to exceptional, young men and women seeking to enter the United States Air Force Academy.

SECTION 2. Primary Mission: To increase the opportunity for highly motivated, exceptional, young men and women to attend the United States Air Force Academy through the award of Falcon Foundation Scholarships at junior college and preparatory schools, enabling them to pursue a career in the United States Air Force and Space Force.

ARTICLE III OFFICES

The principal office of the Foundation shall be located in Doolittle Hall at the USAF Academy, Colorado. Other offices may be established as the Governing Trustees may determine. The President of the Foundation, at the above address, is the Registered Agent of the Foundation.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERS (TRUSTEES)

SECTION 1. Classes of Members: The Foundation shall have five categories of members as designated below.

A. Eligibility. The following categories of individuals are eligible for consideration to become members of the Foundation:

- 1) Retired, resigned, or honorably separated commissioned officers and

- noncommissioned officers of the US Air Force;
- 2) Current and former civilian employees of the Federal Government;
 - 3) Members of the Air Force Reserve and National Guard Bureau (not on extended active duty), as well as Special Government Employees (SGEs) of the Federal Government (including individuals serving in unique or temporary roles performing work for the Federal Government and not falling within categories 1 or 2 above).
 - 4) Individuals who support the United States Air Force and USAF Academy, and who possess an appropriate background, experience and interests.

All nominees shall be subject to the following criteria:

- 5) Each must be favorably recommended by the Nominating Committee following vetting and due diligence, as set forth in greater detail in the Policy Manual;
- 6) Each must be in current compliance with the requirements and spirit of the Foundation's rules concerning Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics, and, in accordance with procedures set forth in greater detail in the Policy Manual, each should not pose any significant concerns regarding future compliance.

In addition, to the foregoing, the Board of Trustees may modify the categories and/or criteria above, as they deem suitable and proper, provided however, that any criteria or qualifications shall apply uniformly to all nominees of the same class or category of membership.

B. The designation of category, the number and rights of the members of each category shall be as follows:

- 1) Active: The Active Members shall be the voting Trustees of the Foundation and have the right to vote on any matter brought to the Board of Trustees for a vote. The number of Active Members shall not exceed 225, not including Senior Trustees.
 - a) On initial acceptance by the Board of Trustees, each new Active Member will be assigned randomly to a one, two or three-year term in order to maintain approximately the same number of voting Trustees in each of the three-year groups. Newly-elected membership shall not commence until the following have been completed:
 - i) contribution of annual dues;
 - ii) acknowledgement of the Code of Ethics; and,

Active Members who demonstrate active support for the Foundation are held in high regard and are eligible for re-election. If re-elected, any subsequent term shall be three years. Active Members must provide the Foundation with current contact information, to include preferred mailing address, phone number, and email address, and shall immediately inform the Foundation if their contact information changes. Failure to keep the Foundation informed about changes in contact information shall not be considered a mitigating circumstance when determining eligibility for continued membership or re-election. While in-person participation at meetings is preferred, virtual

- participation will count to meet attendance and quorum requirements.
- b) Provided there are no sufficiently mitigating circumstances, an Active Member may be determined to be not actively supporting the Foundation and therefore ineligible for continued membership or for re-election, if that member:
 - i) within the 6 months prior to re-election, has not acknowledged the Code of Ethics; or,
 - ii) has not submitted a Conflict of Interest disclosure; or,
 - iii) has not paid dues for two consecutive years; or,
 - iv) has not attended a meeting for two consecutive years.

For Active members who allow their responsibilities to lapse between elections, the President will accomplish due diligence and report to an Executive Committee consisting of the Chair of the Board, Vice Chair, President, Vice President and General Counsel. Senior Trustees are considered to be Active Members in all respects and must acknowledge the Code of Ethics and submit a Conflict of Interest disclosure every three years.

3) Honorary: Persons deemed deserving by the Board of Trustees may be elected as Honorary Members for life. Honorary Members are non-voting members of the Board of Trustees. The names of such members will be set forth in any list of the members of the Board of Trustees. There shall be no limit on the number of Honorary Members.

The Nominating Committee will in turn make appropriate recommendation to the Governing Trustees for consideration by the Board of Trustees. Retired Trustees will be kept informed of Foundation news but are relieved of Trustee responsibilities as addressed in B. (1) above and will not have a vote on Foundation matters.

SECTION 2. Election of Members: Members of the Foundation shall be elected by the voting Trustees in attendance at a duly constituted meeting of the Board of Trustees.

SECTION 4. Termination of Membership: Additionally, if a member is deemed to have allowed their membership to lapse as determined by the Executive Committee, that member may be ineligible for continued membership or re-election. Any member may be suspended or expelled by the vote of two-thirds of the voting Trustees attending a duly constituted meeting of the Board of Trustees. A. Purpose: The Falcon Foundation, as a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization, depends on charitable contributions from the public and espouses the highest ethical standards in its support of the United States Air Force Academy. Therefore, the operations of the Foundation first must fulfill all legal requirements. Successful operations also depend on the public trust and thus are subject to scrutiny by and accountability to both governmental authorities and members of the public. Additionally, Trustees have a duty to the Foundation that clearly subordinates their personal interests to the interests of the Foundation.

B. Definitions:

- 1) Conflict of Interest (COI): a COI exists when a Trustee enters, or proposes to enter, into a Conflicting Interest Transaction.

- 2) Conflicting Interest Transaction: means a contract, transaction, or other financial relationship between the Foundation and a Trustee of the Foundation, or between the Foundation and a party related to a Trustee, or between the Foundation and an entity in which a Trustee of the Foundation is a director or has a financial interest. (Note: this definition is based upon current Bylaws, which was based upon the definition in the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act)

- 3) Party Related to a Trustee: means a spouse, a descendent, an ancestor, a sibling, the spouse or descendent of a sibling, an estate or trust in which the Trustee, or a party related to a Trustee, has a beneficial interest, or an entity in which a party related to a Trustee is a director, officer, or has a financial interest. (Note: this definition also based upon Bylaws Art. VIII the definition in the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act).

C. Policy:

- 1) Duty to Disclose: Each Trustee has a duty to disclose actual or potential COIs that may affect him/her personally. It is also expected that Trustees will report any circumstances affecting other Trustees that might involve the Foundation in a COI.

- 2) Duty to Recuse: If an actual or potential COI is identified regarding a specific transaction, the affected Trustee must recuse himself or herself from voting or participating in decision-making on that transaction or directly related issues.

- 3) Administration/Enforcement: Disclosures of COIs, related recusals, and disputes regarding COIs shall be reported to the VP General Counsel, who shall have jurisdiction and responsibility to administer and enforce this COI policy.

4) Duty to File Disclosure Statement: The COI Disclosure Statement (see Policy and Procedures Manual), shall be filed by each individual nominated to become a Trustee, and, if selected to be a Trustee, then updated as required but no less than within the 6 months prior to re-election.

5) Transaction May Proceed Under Certain Conditions: As provided by Colorado Law, a Conflicting Interest Transaction may proceed, and not be voidable, if:

- a) The material facts as to the Trustee's relationship or interest and as to the Conflicting Interest Transaction are disclosed or are known to the Governing Trustees, and the Governing Trustees in good faith authorize, approve, or ratify the Conflicting Interest Transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested Governing Trustees, even though the disinterested Governing Trustees are less than a quorum; or,
- b) The material facts as to the Trustee's relationship or interest and as to the Conflicting Interest Transaction are disclosed or are known to the members entitled to vote thereon, and the Conflicting Interest Transaction is specifically authorized, approved, or ratified in good faith by a vote of the members entitled to vote thereon; or,
- c) The Conflicting Interest Transaction is fair to the Foundation.

Interested Governing Trustees may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Governing Trustees which authorizes, approves, or ratifies the Conflicting Interest Transaction.

Despite the above, a Conflicting Interest Transaction may not proceed until after the VP General Counsel has reviewed the potential COI and determines that approval by the Governing Trustees is appropriate.

6) Breach of COI: If a Trustee should willfully fail to disclose a potential or actual COI affecting him/her, or fail to comply with any COI determination made by the VP General Counsel and/or the GTs, or fail to comply with this COI in any other way, such action shall constitute a breach of the COI policy and may be determined by the VP General Counsel to be a breach of the Code of Ethics as well, and the VP General Counsel shall process the matter accordingly.

SECTION 3. Loans: No loans shall be made by the Foundation to its Trustees or officers.

ARTICLE IX INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 1. Undertaking to Indemnify: The Foundation hereby undertakes to indemnify any Trustee, officer or committee member who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party in any threatened, pending or complete action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she was a Trustee, officer or committee member of the Foundation, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Foundation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. Expenses (including attorney's fees) judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by said Trustee, officer or committee member in connection with such action, suit or procedure are included as items that may be indemnified.

SECTION 2. Determination: Decisions will be made by the Foundation as specific cases arise upon a determination that indemnification of the Trustee, officer or committee member is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct. Such determination shall be made on the specific case by a quorum of the Governing Trustees not parties to such action or, if such quorum is not obtainable, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion to the Governing Trustees.

ARTICLE X CONTRACTS, CHECKS, DEPOSITS AND FUNDS

Contracts: The Governing Trustees may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the Foundation, in addition to the officers so authorized by these Bylaws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Foundation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

SECTION 2. Checks, Drafts, or Orders: All checks, drafts or orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Foundation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the Foundation and in such manner as shall be determined by resolution of the Governing Trustees. In the absence of such determination by the Governing Trustees, such instruments shall be signed or authorized by the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and be countersigned or counter-authorized by the President or Vice President of the Foundation.

SECTION 3. Deposits: All funds of the Foundation shall be deposited to the credit of the Foundation in such banks, trust companies, fiduciaries, depositories or with such agents or trustees as the Governing Trustees may select.

ARTICLE XV DISSOLUTION

In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation, all the business, property and assets of the Corporation, after the payment in full of all its debts and obligations of whatsoever kind and nature, shall be donated to the Association of Graduates, a nonprofit Corporation, located at the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado. If the Association of Graduates is not then in existence, or fails to then be exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the assets shall be donated to such other tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organizations whose purposes most resemble those of the Corporation. The recipients and assets distributed to them shall be designated by the Governing Trustees. In no event shall any of the assets or property of the Corporation or the proceeds of any of said assets or property, in the event of the dissolution thereof, go or be distributed to members of whatsoever kind or class, either for the reimbursement of any sum subscribed, donated or contributed by such members, or for any other such purpose save and except necessary expenses of liquidation or dissolution.
